J. H. Patton Has Narrow Escape from Death.

WAGON DASHED TO PIECES

Horse Driven by Employee of Hampton

Steam Laundry Takes Fright and Breaks to Run—Vehicle is Wrecked Against Telephone Pole.

John Hill Patton, employed by the Hampton Steam Laundry, sustained painful injuries and narrowly escaped being instantly killed in a runaway accident in Armistead avenue yesterday afternoon. Mr. Patton, who is in charge of one of the route wagons for the laundry, was driving along Armistead avenue, when his horse became frightened by the breaking of the breech strap and dashed up the avenue at break-neck speed in the direction of Victoria avenue. When nearing the corner of Newport News avenue an automobile put in its appearance and the driver of the auto pulled his machine off to the right side.

Seeing that the maddened horse would dash into the auto, Mr. Patton pulled the reins and managed to change the runaway animal's course to the left. In doing this Mr. Patton failed to notice the closeness of a telephone pole and the front of the wagon shaft struck the pole. The horse kicked itself loose, while the wagon was smashed almost into smithereens by the impact with the pole. All this time Mr. Patton held to the reins, but finally the equine broke loose and continued its wild run until several men stopped her in Newport News avenue.

Deputy Sheriff T. S. Curtis, Emil Dietrich, Beanie Burbank and Raymond Brittingham, who witnessed the runaway, hurriedly ran to the smashed up vehicle expecting to find Mr. Patton crushed to death. Instead, however, the four men found the driver sitting on the broken seat in a dazed condition and with a few bruises but no broken bones.

Mr. Patton had his injuries attended to and later in the day continued his work by getting another horse and wagon.

Those who witnessed the runaway say that the escape from instant death of Mr. Patton was miraculous.

BOXMAN BRUMMER REACHES FORT MONROE

Feeling in the pink of condition and declaring that his arm is in perfect shape, W. J. Brummer, said to be one of the fastest twirlers in the United States army, reached Old Point yesterday to join the Fort Monroe Artillerymen. Brummer was signed by the fort two months ago, but at that time Fort Washington declined to give him up. Since then the Fort Monroe authorities have been exercising all diligence to get the crack twirler and a few days ago they succeeded in having Brummer transferred to this post.

Brummer will pitch one of the games with the Newport News Athletics this afternoon, while Rodemich, the Philadelphiaan, is expected to twirl the other contest, in the event that a doubleheader is arranged.

Breaks His Rib.

Benjamin Burge, one of the drivers of the Newport News & Old Point Railway & Electric Company's ice wagon, sustained a fracture of one of his ribs by a fall upon a large cake of ice at the plant yesterday morning. Mr. Burge was overcome by the quick change of air when entering the refrigerator plant. He was treated by Dr. J. Wilton Hope and then continued his work.

GOOD GAME PROMISED HERE THIS AFTERNOON

Crabbers and the North Enders to Meet in What is Expected to Prove Battle Royal.

A record-breaking crowd is expected to congregate on New Park diamond this afternoon to witness the game between the Hampton Crabbers and the Newport News North Enders. It is expected that the contest will prove a royal battle and all Hampton "fandom" will be out to root for the Crabbers. North End has promised to bring down a bunch of rooters from the Shipbuilding City, so it can be anticipated that some real "rooting" will be heard during the game. Carl Walker, the former University of Virginia star and Virginia State leaguer, is expected to be on the firing line for Hampton, but should he fail to report for the game Jackson will do the flinging, thus guaranteeing a warmly contested battle.

It is expected here that Eaken will be the "thrower" for the visitors. The game will be called promptly at 4 o'clock and Rayfield and Murphy will be in charge of the indicators.

Reflections of a Bachelor.

The strongest belief a celibate man has is that he isn't. An extra hateful bit to pay is when it was for something useful. Temptation plays a game where nobody else has a chance to win. It seems as if the worse destiny treats a woman the more faith she can have in it. A woman is willing to slave herself to death for a man who tells her she inspires him to want to do noble things for her.
